MANY MASONS IN THE CITY

Grand Working Committee Ex emplified Unwritten Work Yesterday.

Virginia, members of the Masonic frater-nity, are flocking to Richmond this week to attend the 129th Annual Convocation of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of Masons in Virginia, which will be opened in ample form at the Masonic Temple Broad Street at 7:30 o'clock to-night.

The advance guard came in by the trains of yesterday afternoon and last night. As many as a hundred wellknown Masons are already here, and today, trains will bring in several hundred

The advices so far received by Grand Secretary Carrington Indicate that at least 500 out-of-town Masons will attend this session of the Grand Lodge. The Richmond contingent added to this will swell the attendance to as many as

Work Exemplified.

The grand working committee, the custodians of the secret work, and the authority on the ritual, held conferences all day yesterday, and before large classes they exemplified the unwritten work. All the members of the committee were present at the conference. They are Messis. W. T. Rea, Park Jones, J. M. Clift, F. W. Whitaker, J. C. Pruner, C. G. Davis, Past Grand Master H. O. Kerns, James Bowman, H. M. Rogers, E. L. Cunningham, George W. Wright and P. K. Bowman.
Last night the committee met with Fra-

L. Cunningham, George W. Wright and P. K. Bowman.

Last night the committee met with Fraternity Lodge, No. 53, and conferred the master's degree on two candidates. It was a regular meeting of the lodge and was attended by a large number of Masons from all parts of the State.

The grand working committee will hold sessions this morning and this afternoon and every morning and afternoon while the Grand Lodge is in session. The Grand Lodge, when it meets to-night, will hear the annual address of the grand master and the roports of the other officers and the standing committees. These reports will be referred to the appropriate committees, and their reports on the same, most of which will probably be made at the session to-morrow afternoon or to-morrow night, will furnish the grand body with enough business to keep it at labor until Thursday night, at which time it will probably close.

Re-Elect Old Officers.

Re-Elect Old Officers.

Re-Elect Old Officers.

The committees will be busy to-morrow morning and to-morrow afternoon mapping out work for the Grand Lodge. To-morrow night officers for the ensuing year will be elected, but as all the present officers will probably be continued in their stations, the election will not attract the attention it does every second year.

in their stations, the election in their state in attention it does every second year.

Grand Master Kosciusko Kemper who reached the city last evening, is the great of Grand Secretary G. W. Carrington. Deputy Grand Master S. J. Quinn is stopping with Grand Senior Warden J. W. Eggleston.

Grand Junior Warden J. W. Kellam will not be able to attend this session of the Grand Lodge, because of the illness of his wife.

It is said that the repor of the secretary and that of the treasurer will show that in all respects the Grand Lodge has had the most prosperous year of its existence. The inances are in good shape; the order has grown in numbers and infuence, and peace and harmony prevall throughout the grand jurisdiction.

The social features of this session of the Grand Lodge will not be overlooked. The supper to-morrow night will, of course, be a feature, and then Grand Steward Krause will be in his element.

Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and mallelous attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladles' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and almonts, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit woman's weaknesses and allments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies Home Journal, for $200,000,00 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such faise and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business furthermore, that no alcohol, or other hijurious, or habit-forming, drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Ecception"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatever ad that Mr. Bok's malicious statements were wholly and absolutely false. In the retraction britued by said Journal they were fured to acknowledge that they had obtained analyses of "Favorite Prescription" from eminent chemists, all of whom certified that it did not contain alcohologians of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickelly defamatory article never saw the humble groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdet in the Discor's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their has slanders were stored.

VETERANS GREATLY IN NEED OF FUNDS

Only 139 days, including Sundays, now remain before May 30th, the date set for the beginning of the Confederate Reunion in this city, and yet the old soldiers still have nearly $14,000 to raise. The slowness with which the public is responding to their call for aid has become most discouraging. It will require at least $45,000 for the entertainment of the veterans who will come here to attend the meeting of the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, yet the reunion committees last night saw only $11,208,75 in sight. True, it is confidently believed that the Council will appropriate $20,000 more, but even with this a big shortage will still confront the old soldiers. The reunion expenses have been carefully calculated on the basts of similar gatherings here and elsewhere, and therefore it is positively known that every cent of $45,000 will be needed. This year, too, the reunion will last five days, instead of three, as heretofore, and what Is more, the crowd promises to be the largest in the history of the Grand Camp. In view of all these things, Colonel John W. Gordon, the general chairman, is eager for every committeeman to get busy soliciting. He would like to know by March ist exactly how much money may be expected.

Lehr, it appears, went to see these great personages attired in a check tweed suit, yellow boots and a colored shirt, and carrying a derby hat in his hand.

When he entered the room where royalty sat at a "drawing-room" he insisted that his wife—so the papers sayshould have precedence of the wives of ambassadors, and when this important privilege was about to be denied to Mrs. Lehr, he pointed out that his jewelry and that of his wife were worth more than all the plunder worn by all the other grandees in the room.

The sum of £2.500 was expended in the repairing of the porches, in new lavatories and in plumbing at the White City Home.

Our hospital and ambulance work is steadily on the Increase, and I endorse the promptness and efficiency of our surgeon, resident physicians, nurses and drivers. The behavior of the inmates has been exceptionally good. Several entertainments were given during the year in the Sunshine Room, and were richly enjoyed by the inmates and convalescent patients.

Services were held regularly in the chapel, and I am indebted to Rev. Jno. Moneure, the students of the Baptist College, Mr. Vivian McKennon, Saint John's Society, Mrs. Jobson and others, who have often during the year conducted the meetings.

Outdoor Relief.—I have promptly met all just demands to relieve the actual wants of the very poor. They are largely aged and decreption and their becoming permanent inmutes of the City Home.

The annual expense for outdoor relief will compare favorably with that of any other city of like population.

I investigate all applicants for aid and do my best not to encourage idleness. I again recommend the increase of the salaries of the cook and night-watchman; the appointment of a pharmacist and one or more resident physicians, and that two ambulances bo kept permanently at work.

This will necessitate the purchase of one more ambulance and two horses as well as the appointment of one or more drivers. This demand is occasioned by the annexed territory. I also recommend the establishment of an officer's table, the building of new morgues, and the appointment of a fireman who can also manage the laundry; the painting and repairing of White City Home; a new bath room for the resident physicians, hospital fixtures, and 'furnishings for office.

I again urge prompt action in pro-viding better facilities for the care of the inmates in both hospital and wards of the Colored City Home.
